Apr 18, 2024

Proceeds Will Help Protect Oceans, Waves and Beaches for All People to Enjoy

MONTAUK, N.Y., April 18, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Montauk Brewing Company ("Montauk Brewing" or "Montauk"), the leading and fastest-selling craft brewer in Metro New York known for its exceptional craft beers and a subsidiary of Tilray Brands, Inc. (NASDAQ: TLRY and TSX: TLRY), today announced the return of Project 4:20 India Pale Ale, a limited release crafted to celebrate and support green charities during Earth Month and beyond. This year, Montauk will donate proceeds of Project 4:20 to the Surfrider Foundation, a non-profit dedicated to the protection and enjoyment of the world's oceans, waves and beaches.

Montauk brewed Project 4:20 (6.8% alcohol-by-volume) with a unique blend of terpenes for maximum dankness, resulting in a hazy IPA that delivers resinous hempy aromatic notes. In addition to donating 5% of proceeds from Project 4:20 to the Surfrider Foundation, Montauk Brewing will also promote and participate in beach cleanups hosted in April by the organization's Eastern Long Island and Central Long Island chapters.

"This is one of our favorite limited releases of the year that we've brewed to celebrate all things green in April," said Vaughan Cutillo, founder and brand director of Montauk Brewing. "The heady aromas and flavors of this potent IPA feel right at home around during Earth Month. More importantly, we can all keep it green by drinking Project 4:20 and supporting the important work of the Surfrider Foundation, our long-time friends whose work protecting our oceans, waves and beaches is incredibly important to the Montauk community."

Project 4:20 is available for purchase at select retailers and on-premise locations in New York and New Jersey. It will also be available at Blue Point Brewing Company's Shakedown on Mainstreet this Saturday, April 20 at the Blue Point brewery in Patchogue.
