

Blue Point Brewing Hosts 20th Annual Cask Ales Festival

Oct 2, 2024

Sample More Than 150 Unique Firkin-Style Beers at Long Island's Most Iconic Beer Festival

PATCHOGUE, N.Y., Oct. 02, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Blue Point Brewing Company, Long Island's original craft brewery and a subsidiary of Tilray Brands, (NASDAQ: TLRV and TSX: TLRV), proudly announces its 20th Annual Cask Ales Festival, taking place on Saturday, Nov. 2, 2024 from 2pm – 6pm at its flagship brewery in Patchogue, New York. The milestone event promises to be the biggest celebration yet, featuring live performances by The Warped Tour Band, KRUSH, and DJ Kaution, along with a full day of entertainment, exceptional beer tastings, delicious food trucks, and exciting surprises. Tickets can be purchased today at the festival website.

This year's festival will highlight more than 150 firkin-style beers from various breweries, offering attendees a chance to sample rare and fan-favorite brews. Guests will enjoy a selection of dishes from eight local food trucks and browse through a vibrant 20-vendor market filled with local crafts and goods. The festival will offer interactive activities, such as jousting, and skateboarding demos ensuring fun surprises await throughout the day.

Mark Burford, Founder of Blue Point Brewing Company, shared his enthusiasm: "It was truly a labor of love that sparked this event—cask ales have always been something we produced and were passionate about. Now, for two decades, the Cask Ales Festival has become a cornerstone of our community, providing the most diverse beer selection and festive attitude in one place, bringing folks back year after year to celebrate."

A portion of the proceeds from ticket sales will benefit Long Island Cares and Seatuck, supporting local hunger relief and environmental conservation efforts, respectively.
